Russia would be for us to make Theo-dore Roosevelt ambassador extraordi-nary, with full power over all branches of America's work in Russia. The Rus-sians know only three American names. They are Roosevelt, Jack London and Mark Twain. They sell London's books in the railway stations, and every Rus-sian soldier knows "feddy." We all felt sian soldier knows 'Teddy.' over there that it was too bad Roose velt couldn't come to represent Amer-ica to the Russians."

'Not entirely hopeless," was the way Dr. Newton summed up the Russian sit-uation to-day. The new armles, he said, were ignorant as children, measuring 10 per cent where the average American soldier would be 100 per cent. They could be easily swayed by a good orator, and the government is getting its representatives in the camps now to offset the effect of German propaganda. The "Legions of Death" and other volunteer organizations which go from unteer organizations, which go from camp to camp like flying squadrons to instil patriotism, are having a great ef-

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. Starvation and rioting in Warsaw and other sections of Poland occupied by the Germans have so increased that Germany has authorized relief workers to seek funds wherever they may be found. The Red Cross headquarters at Geneva and agents of the Rockefeller Fund have been called upon for help.

This information reached here to-day from a man in Switzerland who has been distributing relief in Poland and who was allowed to leave the country by the Germans on condition that he raise more money. The general condition of Poland, the message said, is deplorable. Prices of food have risen so that none but the richest can buy, the poor are literally starving and the mor-tality among the children is described shocking. Hatred of the Germans is said to be Hatred of the Germans is said to be so intense that women attack German soldiers in the streets, and gendarmes have been forbidden to patrol the country at night, as many of them had disappeared. It is plainly evident by the considerate treatment given rioters, secording to the dispatch, that the Germans are apprehensive of disturbances. WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The Senate Military Sub-Committee considering charges of pro-Germanism against Colonel Carl Reichmann, of the regular army, whose nomination to be a brigadier general has been held up, to-day decided to submit the report of their recent investigations to full committee to-morrow.

It is understood that Senators Fletcher, of Florida, and Weeks, of Massachusetts, will recommend Colonel Reichmann's confirmation, while Senator Meyers, of Montana, will oppose it.
